March cost $3,565 more than your monthly average

Four categories simultaneously spiked: healthcare ($1,484 vs. $37 other months), lodging ($1,287), air travel ($576), and AC repair ($806). No single recurring driver — it was a convergence of obligations.

→ Tooth Doctor: $1,294
→ Lake Nona Hotel: $953
→ United Air Conditioning: $806
→ United Airlines: $577
→ Dental ($1,594 across Feb-Mar), HVAC, and semi-annual trips are individually irregular but collectively predictable. A home/health reserve of ~$500/mo would absorb a month like March without disruption.

AI TOOLS

$1,372 on AI tools in 5 months — an unbudgeted $274/month

Six distinct AI services across the period. Runway alone accounts for $425 including a $350 annual charge in January. Anthropic/Claude charges are the largest cumulative at $460.

Anthropic $460Runway $425Midjourney $288OpenAI $100Klingai $79ElevenLabs $20

→ Midjourney ($288) and Klingai ($79) charged only once — confirm whether these are active subscriptions or one-time charges. If recurring, the AI stack runs ~$350/month.

MEDIUM PRIORITY

$1,144 on landscaping and home improvement across 9 weeks

Willow Tree Nursery charged 6 times from mid-March through April 30, totaling $532. Home Depot added another $612 across 7 visits in the same window — concentrated in the March-April outdoor season.

→ Willow Tree Nursery (6 visits): $532
→ Home Depot (7 visits): $612
→ The March-April landscaping season adds roughly $300-400/month in home expenses not visible in recurring-cost models. Factor into summer projections.

PATTERN

Neptune's Grill: 10 visits, $781 YTD — the most-visited restaurant

Average spend per visit is $78. Frequency held steady at 1-4 visits/month, with a March peak of 4 visits ($340). More visits than any other single merchant in the dataset.

HIGH PRIORITY

Four hotel stays totaling $3,664 — lodging runs $733/month

Three trips drove all lodging: Lake Nona/Orlando ($953 + $1,882 across two visits), NYC Ink 48 ($437 + $285), and Vinoy Resort ($58 + $48). The JW Marriott in May was the single largest charge in the dataset at $1,434.

→ JW Marriott Orlando (May): $1,434
→ Lake Nona Wave Hotel (Mar): $953
→ INK 48 NYC (Apr + Mar): $722
→ Orlando appears as a recurring destination (Feb, Mar, May). If travel continues at this pace, lodging will reach ~$8,800 by year-end.

CONFIDENCE MEDIUM — 6-MONTH PROJECTION

HEALTH

$1,594 at Tooth Doctor in two visits — likely a multi-phase treatment plan

Feb 20: $300, Mar 27: $1,294. The spacing and escalating amounts suggest a follow-up procedure rather than two unrelated visits. With CVS pharmacy adding $75, total health spend is $1,864 YTD.

→ If additional treatment is planned, expect another $500-1,500 charge. Flag this in a healthcare sinking fund before the next appointment.
